

I receive at least 10 telemarketer calls per day. I have caller ID, but I am a grandmother , so I run to the phone to look, in case it is my children or grandchildren calling. This is very time consuming and annoying. They are recently putting messages on my answering machine. It is getting completely out of hand. Something must and should be done. Thank you , Mrs. Copeland